

We have a long skinny room and triangle tables that we need to arrange in a row with their edges touching, as shown. Each side can hold one "seat," shown with a circle. Can patterns help us find an easy way to answer the question: How many seats can fit around a row of triangle tables?

What patterns do you see? _____
